

How much budget information are counties making available to the public online?

Counties should be making at least the following documents available to the public, consistent with the Public Finance Management Act: Budget Estimates (Proposed Budgets), Approved Estimates (Enacted Budgets), County Fiscal Strategy Papers, Quarterly Budget Implementation Reports, County Budget Review and Outlook Papers, Annual Plans, and County Integrated Development Plans.