

How much budget implementation data are counties making available online? January 2016

Counties should make the following key budget documents available to the public during budget implementation: the Enacted Budget (Approved Budget Estimates), the Budget Review and Outlook Paper, and the First Quarter Budget Implementation Reports (the first quarter report should have been released by October 30).